WHO WE ARE

Modena Theatre Workshop was founded in 2000 by English/Drama teacher Jane Elizabeth Read with a small group of students, and since then it has flourished, now counting about 200 students. The aim is to have fun together, uniting the utility of the English language with the magic of Theatre.

Groups meet once a week for 90 – 100 minutes.

Directors and teachers (Adrian James and Jane Elizabeth Read) are native speakers with many years of theatrical experience.

It is essential for members to have a good understanding since the entire course is held in English. We encourage active conversation and participation in planning so there is a great deal of conversation. Generally, the first month is dedicated to producing an autumn performance of the show already held in May. New members are given a small part to play, or a technical responsibility, so they can break the ice. The second and third months are dedicated to theatre exercises and games, working on every aspect of spoken English and theatre.

From approximately January to May we work on producing a show for the theatre – anything from Shakespeare to musicals and contemporary theatre.

FEES

30 euros annual enrolment fee + 260 tuition fee, payable in two instalments, 130 in October, 130 in January. The fee covers the cost of costumes and everything else for our final theatre show in May.

WHERE

Adult groups meet in via L. da Vinci 270; youth groups in the city centre. Check for info on our site.
